We were excited to be welcoming our friends from the Roald Dahl Museum, The Natural History Museum (Tring) and the RSPB for our Reading Fun Day. Because of the big bug, that can’t happen now, but you can still visit them online and try some of their activities.

COLOURING-IN

This image shows a single sheet of aged, cream-colored paper with horizontal ruling lines. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint smudges, characteristic of old stationery. There are 20 horizontal lines in total, evenly spaced across the page. The lines are a light brown or tan color, contrasting subtly with the cream background. The paper is oriented vertically, and there is no handwriting or other markings on it.

Hi, James here. I just wanted to send a message to all of you junior supporters - I hope you are keeping well and staying safe in these very difficult and peculiar times! I am sure that you are missing watching the mighty Hatters in action (I know I am) and so you may be struggling to occupy yourselves.

RECIPES

Alex, our Hatters Chef, has put together some recipes that you can cook together at home!

‘These recipes can be made in as big or small of a quantity as you need – whether you are cooking for one or cooking for your whole family. I’ve left the quantities out so that you can adapt the recipe to suit your needs. And it also gives you an excuse to taste as you go along!’

Quinoa bites

- Pre-heat the oven to 180 °C.
- Grease a muffin tin with oil.
- Boil the quinoa, stirring regularly until soft and then strain off the excess water through a sieve.
- In a bowl, beat together one egg, the quinoa and diced vegetables of your choice (season with salt and pepper).
- Fill the muffin tin moulds with the egg mix.
- Bake for 15- 20 minutes until golden brown .

RECIPES

FLAVOURED PULLED CHICKEN

(REPLACE CHICKEN WITH JACKFRUIT FOR VEGAN ALTERNATIVE)

- Remove the skin from the chicken
- Place the chicken in an oven proof dish and coat with cupboard found spices. Paprika, cumin, coriander and cinnamon work well for a Mexican flavour. Asian style spices will be better if you would prefer a curried or oriental flavour.
- Add onions and chopped tomatoes and then cover with foil. Place in the fridge for an hour to enrich the flavour.
- When ready to do so, bake in an oven at 180°C for around an hour.
- Remove the chicken from the oven and add sliced peppers before returning to the oven until the chicken is tender.
- Pull apart with a knife and fork.
- Serve with either rice, pasta or crispy potatoes

CIDER BRAISED PORK WITH ROASTED APPLE SLICES, MUSTARD MASH AND SLICED SAVOY CABBAGE

(REPLACE PORK WITH JACKFRUIT FOR VEGAN ALTERNATIVE)

- Seal the pork in a hot frying pan with a little oil.
- Place the pork in an oven proof dish once both sides are a nice golden colour.
- In the same pan the pork was sealed, add a generous 'glug' of cider and a sprig of rosemary (or dried if you have it), reduce down and then pour over the pork steaks.
- Place the steaks in the oven on 160°C until cooked through. This should take around 30 mins.
- While the pork is in the oven, boil chopped potatoes (leave unpeeled for a rustic style mash that is higher in fibre). Strain the water and let the steam evaporate (key for great mash) and then mash up with a knob of butter and a tablespoon of mustard.
- Slice the cabbage finely and boil for a few minutes to keep a little crunch in the leaves.
